

THEME 16Consonant Doubling

Underline each misspelled word in the passage and write the word correctly above it.

One beautiful day in the city of Shing,

The people received a leter from the kinng.

It announced a week of competition and fun,

But before it began there was much to be done.

The floors were moped and the streets were washed clean,

And planted vines made Shing lovely and green.

Soon the city was equeped with all it would need

To ensure that the king's royal games would succeed.

With diving and swimiing, the week began –

There was a race for each child, woman and man.

There was chating about who the winner would be.

The wining person had been promised a key.

The key opened a chest that sat next to the king –

Inside might be gold, silver or a diamond ring!
