THEME 13 Prepositions

Underline each misspelled word in the passage and write the word correctly above it.

Charlie stood amoung the pine trees and waited. Underneeth the large branches, she was hidden from view, but could see oveer the small hill and paste Farmer Chang's empty corn fields. Besids her own breathing, the only niose Charlie heard on this quiet wintre morning was the twitter of a snowbird above her head.

Suddenly Charlie saw what she had been waiting for. Abot twenty yards away, a pair of deer emerged out of the early morning shadows and walked out ontoo Farmer Chang's southeastern field. What a pretey sight! The deer stood still as the sun appeared on the horizon and lit up the morning sky.

And then they were gone. Charlie stood a while longer before heading back the way she had come. A warm breakfast would be awaiting her at home.
