Late one evening, Lisa sat in the kitchin reading her book while she waited for the lawndry to dry. The novle was about the effects of polution on people and animals. The book described a case where an entire vilage had become ill becuase of harmful chemicals sprayed on an apple orcard nearby.

Out of the corner of her eye, Lisa noticed something moving on the kitchen table. There was a small insectt on an envilope she had received in the mail earlier that day. The letter inside was from a group asking for money to help stop the use of harmful chemicals on crops. No wonder the insect was interested in it!

Just then Lisa heard a little noise in the backyard. She looked out the window and saw a pair of racoon eyes looking back at her! Lisa smiled, because she knew there wasn't a pollution problem at her house. Everyone was alive and well!
